ALLEGiant AIR EXTENDS SCHEDULE THROUGH NOVEMBER 2ND
WILL FLY CASPER TO LAS VEGAS THROUGHOUT 2015

CASPER, WY – Casper / Natrona County International Airport announced that Allegiant Air has extended their flight schedule through November 2nd with Casper to Las Vegas service through the fall. “In the past, Allegiant had a ‘seasonal stoppage’ in our market, as they do in a number of markets, where the Las Vegas service ended around the beginning of August and resumed the beginning of November,” said Glenn Januska, Airport Director. “Last year the seasonal stoppage was reduced to about 5 weeks, and this year there will be no seasonal stoppage, which is great news and shows how the popularity of the service has grown.”

Allegiant began flying from Casper to Las Vegas on September 19, 2008. To date, over 83,000 passengers have flown on Allegiant to and from Las Vegas from Casper.
